

Visit their gravesite:

Forest Lawn Memorial Park: Canada Way at Royal Oak, Burnaby. From the main entrance, stay left and then take the first right, about half way along that road. Park here. You'll find yourself even with the west end of the mausoleum. Line yourself up with the third pillar from the west and walk south on that row until you are even with a tree on the righthand side. The grave marker should be right there.