

WEDDING.—At the Ebenezer Strict Baptist Chapel on Wednesday the wedding took place of Miss Ruth Naomi West, youngest daughter of Mrs. West, of "Steventon," Broad Oak, and of the late Mr. W. Westell West, for many years pastor of the chapel, to Mr. John Cook, deacon of Zion Chapel, Calne, Wilts. Mr. Caleb Sawyer, pastor of Mayfield Strict Baptist Chapel and cousin of the bride, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. P. West, wore a dress of grey floral georgette and black picture hat. She was attended by her niece, Miss M. L. West who wore a dress of flowered crepe de chine with hat to tone. Mr. Frederick Davis, adopted son of the bridegroom, was best man. After the ceremony relatives and friends connected with the chapel were entertained to tea in the schoolroom. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will reside at Calne. The bride travelled in a navy coat and hat, and dress to tone. Since the death of her father over eight years ago the bride had acted as superintendent of the Sunday School. A large number of useful presents were received.
